

HIGHER NATIONAL DIPLOMA IN INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Enterprise Architecture

Name – N. Fathima Rafna

Reg No – TRI/IT/2324/F/256

Questions and Answers

1. What does SOA stand for?

- SOA stands for Service-Oriented Architecture.

2. List any two features of SOA.

- Platform independence – Services can work on any system or platform
- Service reusability – The same service can be used again in different applications.

3. What is the role of a service registry in SOA?

- It helps services to be registered and discovered by users.

4. Name any two Java technologies used to implement SOA.

- EJB (Enterprise JavaBeans)
- JMS (Java Messaging Service)

5. What protocol does JAX-WS typically use?

- JAX-WS use for SOAP (Simple Object Access Protocol) based web services.

6. What is the key difference between SOAP and REST?

SOAP	REST
It is a protocol.	It is a web service architecture style
Less flexible	More flexible
High security	Basic security
Only XML format	XML, HTML, Text

7. Give one advantage of loose coupling in SOA.

- Changes in one service do not affect other services.

8. What does WSDL stand for?

- WSDL stands for Web Service Description Language.

9. Name a tool used to test SOAP web services.

- SOAPUI

10. What is the purpose of JNDI in Java EE applications?

- It is used for lookup and accessing resources in Java EE applications.

11. Define statelessness in web services.

- Each request is independent and the server does not store previous client data.

12. What is the full form of EJB and its use in SOA?

- EJB full form Enterprise JavaBeans.
- Use It is used to handle business logic and transactions.

13. List two common security threats in web services.

- Unauthorized access
- XML-based attacks

14. What does the @WebService annotation do in Java?

- It is used to mark a class as a web service.
- It is mainly used in SOAP-based web services (JAX-WS).

15. Explain the use of HTTP in RESTful services.

- HTTP is used for communication between client and server using request and response.

16. What is message-level security?

- Message-level security is a secures messages using standards like web services security during transmission.

17. What is the use of a service contract?

- A service contract defines what a service does, how it communicates, and the data formats it uses.
- It ensures clear rules between service provider and consumer for proper interaction.

18. Which Java API is preferred for creating RESTful services?

- JAX-RS is preferred for RESTful web services.

19. What is UDDI used for?

- UDDI is used for discovering and integrating web services.

20. Why is versioning important in web service development?

- Versioning helps maintain compatibility when APIs are updated.
- It ensures old and new clients can work without breaking the service.